THURSDAY, JULY 20

TRADE COUNCIL OF AKRON

TO OUR READERS.

The DEMOCRAT presents its SOUVENIR EDITION to the people of Akron today without having wearied them by a previous flourish of trumpets.

Newspapers that are forever blowing the fog-horn of extravagant self-praise, and trying to make palpable lies pass for the genuine truth, usually display the least enterprise and the most ingenuity when it comes to lending a helping hand to advancement of the interests of their city or its public-spirited citizens. To this class the DEMOCRAT has no desire to belong.

The publishers have gone to considerable expense in presenting this SOUVENIR EDITION to its readers, but if it merits the people's approval, or if it helps in its humble way to advertise Akron and, incidentally, to promote the welfare of the Elks' Fair, our efforts shall not have been in vain.

Every subscriber is entitled to the full twelve pages from the carrier, and any oversight or neglect in this respect will be promptly rectified if reported to the office.

When the War department was being criticised on every hand for its inexcusable blunders, wanton extravagance, and criminal neglect of American troops, the President could not muster up sufficient courage to ask Secretary Alger to resign. But when political expediency requires energetic action, the President loses no time telling Alger to go. Comment is unnecessary.

CHAIRMAN R. L. ANDREW announces that the Democratic county convention to nominate county officers and select delegates to the State convention, will be held the first or second week in August. The Executive committee will meet next week to make the call.

SECRETARY ALGER has finally decided to quit the cabinet "to avoid the intolerable abuse which was being heaped upon him" by Administration newspapers and officials. Alger can now be a candidate for Senator in earnest.

Isn't Secretary Alger, who agreed to retire from the cabinet at the President's pleasure, the same man who remarked a few days ago that "he would never retire under fire"? Perhaps Alger has the promise of a better job.

GEN. GROSVENOR is out with an interview eulogizing Mark Hanna. The Athens prophet knows where his grass comes from, and knows also how to buy his gratitude to those who feed him.

The Administration is going to ignore the statement signed by the Manila correspondents. When the Administration hears from the people it will pay more attention to "round robins."

ATTORNEY GENERAL GRIGGS, faithful friend to the trusts, is suggested as a likely successor to Secretary Alger. Things seem to be going from bad to worse.

DO NOT OBJECT

To Elks' Street Fair as a Whole.

W. C. T. U. Is Pleased Over Concessions Which Were Granted.

There seems to have been a mistake in the statement that the W. C. T. U. would hold a meeting Wednesday evening to take action in reference to certain attractions at the Elks' street fair. No meeting was held.

The W. C. T. U. does not wish to be apprehended as being antagonistic to the Elks' fair as a whole, their stand being directed entirely towards the objectionable features as designed in the society's report published in the papers Wednesday.

A member of the W. C. T. U. committee said to a DEMOCRAT reporter Thursday morning: "The committee feels glad over the concessions granted it by the Executive committee of the Elks' street fair. We are glad to see the open promise that the objectionable features would be closed, and we trust that they will remain until the end of the fair."

To Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 41,207]

"DEAR FRIEND—A year ago I was a great sufferer from female weakness. My head ached all the time and I would get so dizzy and have that all gone feeling in the stomach and head, and nervous and restless that I did not know what to do with myself. "My food did me no good and I had a bad case of whites. I wrote to you and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as directed, I can truly say that I feel like a new woman and cannot tell you how grateful I am to you."

"I have recommended it to all my friends and have given it to my daughter who is now getting along splendidly. May you live many years to help our suffering sisters."—MRS. C. CARPENTER, 253 GRAND ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Over eighty thousand such letters as this were received by Mrs. Pinkham during 1897. Surely this is strong proof of her ability to help suffering women.

PORT THOMAS, Ky., July 20.—General Thomas M. Anderson, commander of the department of the lakes, said in a letter to the Philippine Peace Commissioner Zalcia that he had declared the Philippines would be granted independence forever at any time if any such statement as is attributed to me by Zalcia. I had no clash with General Otis. It is true I suggested an attack on the enemy, which Otis did not accept, but I was not recalled on that account.

A Western Bandit Caught.

SPRINGFIELD, N. Y., July 20.—Sam Ketchum was captured at Lambert's ranch on Ute creek, where he came for medical attendance and food. His left arm was broken near the shoulder. He left Ketchum in custody of three guards. Officers were on the trail of the other two robbers, one of whom they believed wounded. Lambert's ranch is about three miles west of the place where the fight occurred Sunday morning.

STONES HURLED AT CARS.

Missiles Thrown and Police Searched

For the Gun.

CLEVELAND, July 20.—There was but little change in the street car strike situation. Cars were being run at irregular intervals on nearly all the lines. A few stones were thrown at cars passing the corner of St. Clair and Madison streets during the noon hour, when the hundreds of employees in cloak and clothing factories were out for luncheon. Several policemen invaded the factories to discover who threw the missiles, but they were hissed by the men and women employed there.

The strikers maintained great reticence concerning their plans. They refused to make a statement for publication. It was announced that a big mass meeting would be held tonight, and it was stated that the strikers would publish a daily newspaper beginning tonight, in which they would present their views of the controversy to the public.

Damaged by Electrolysis.

CLEVELAND, July 20.—The city electrician conducted an investigation to learn the effects of electrolysis on one street in this city. He found that 42 house water connections were eaten off during the past two weeks in a few instances the big water mains are badly damaged. The electrolysis is due to the currents from the return wires of the electric railway on the street.

CRUICKS PROBABLY HAD BOOTY.

Police Light on a Ft. Wayne Train

Near Pittsburg.

PITTSBURGH, July 20.—The five supposed escaped convicts who held up the crew of the Chicago express on the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad Tuesday night near Emsworth and seriously injured Detective Andrew McCurt, it was believed by officers, had just been discovered by the police. The loot, consisting of money and jewels.

Detective McCurt tried to arrest one of the gang, "Kid" McMillen, who was recognized as having escaped from the Chillicothe (O.) jail, and the rest jumped upon him. A number of shots were fired. The train crew were driven from the car and the train stopped. McCurt jumped off and was followed by McCurt, who it was believed wounded him. The other men then badly beat McCurt and escaped, taking McCurt with them. Officers were searching for them.

Convention Opened in Indianapolis Today.

OVER 12,000 DELEGATES PRESENT.

Bishop Ninde said the Convention was a Love Feast and Affiliation of the Leagues Probable Movement Against the Seating of Mormon Roberts.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 20.—The opening session of the fourth biennial international convention of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Canadian Methodist church opened this afternoon.

The mammoth tent was raised in the courthouse lawn. Across the street from the tent is Tomlinson hall, and the opening session of the league was held in the two simultaneously.

Tomorrow morning the league meetings will be extended to the English Opera House, about three blocks distant, and thereafter sessions will be conducted in the three places at the same time.

The estimates of the various committees placed the number of delegates at 12,000. Probably the only point of contention will be the selection of the next meeting place in 1901. Los Angeles and San Francisco have both professed to be the place for the next convention.

Five packages of literature against the seating of Congressman Roberts have arrived, directed to the Rev. T. C. Dill of Salt Lake City. It is stated that Mr. Dill will come as a delegate to the convention, at which he will attempt to inaugurate a movement against the Mormon congressman.

Bishop W. X. Ninde, Detroit, president of the Epworth League cabinet; Bishop John F. Hurst of Washington, and Rev. Edwin A. Schell of Chicago arrived last night.

Prof. James M. Black of Pittsburg, one of the three chorus directors, arrived last night.

BROOKLYN STRIKE SPREAD

Men Out on Some New York Lines—Serious Rioting—Dynamite Used on Elevated Structure.

NEW YORK, July 20.—New York trolley men joined the Brooklyn trolley men in their big strike. The center of operations in New York city was on the Third Avenue line, where the strike was in full force. The excitement in Brooklyn centered in the vicinity of Thirty-sixth and Fifth avenue, where dynamite was used in an attempt to blow down the elevated structure.

Twenty-one strikers were arrested, charged with the dynamiting and held for examination, but being fined.

The rioting that took place in New York city was a serious nature, infinitely fiercer than that which has taken place in the borough across the river. Scores of people were injured, and severely injured, in the Second Avenue district. That great thoroughfare was crowded with a jeering, howling mob, almost its entire length. The great tenements gave forth their workmen, who were armed with clubs and stones.

Several policemen were removed to hospitals with broken bones and torn scalps. At least one striker or sympathizer had his skull fractured. Innumerable passengers on the cars received bad wounds.

On the other lines throughout New York city the strike was not at any time prominent. Last night, however, the motormen on the Eighth Avenue line, to the number of 100 or more, organized and declared a strike.

German Envoy Talked.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—A. Von Mumm, the German envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, who arrived here recently and on last Monday presented to President McKinley his credentials, said that as far as his government was concerned the critical phase of the Samoa dispute had passed. He declared that he had specific instructions which contemplated the immediate conclusion of a reciprocity treaty. He praised the United States for its policy in Samoa, and said that the German government was ready to accept the decision of the United States.

G. H. F. Belmont Said He Understood

Whitney Went to Ask Him to Run.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Oliver H. F. Belmont of New York said he understood William C. Whitney, who started for Europe, meant to see Admiral Dewey and persuade him to let his name be presented to the national convention as a candidate for the nomination.

He did not believe the admiral would consent. If the admiral were brought to consent, he said he did not believe he could beat Mr. Bryan in the convention.
